FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bermuda Championship Tickets in High Demand

Limited quantities remain available to the public

Southampton, Bermuda (October 7, 2020) — Fans are encouraged to act quickly to purchase their tickets for the second annual Bermuda Championship. The PGA TOUR event, scheduled October 26 to November 1 at Port Royal Golf Course, Southampton, will be the first TOUR event since March to welcome general admission spectators on-site during competition rounds.

“We have been overwhelmed by the response that we’ve received from the island,” said Tournament Director Sean Sovacool. “We look forward to a week of great golf with spectators for the first time since March. I encourage anyone interested in attending to purchase their tickets while they last.”

Since going on sale last week, Sunday’s round has nearly sold out, with fewer than 100 general admission tickets remaining. Gates are open to the public Thursday, October 29 to Sunday, November 1, with daily general admission available for $35. Tickets will not be sold at the gate; they are available only in advance and can be purchased through the tournament website at www.bermudachampionship.com/tickets. All spectators, regardless of age, must have a ticket to access the grounds of Port Royal Golf Course.

A VIP upgrade is available for the Longtail Club located on 18 green. Hospitality tickets include food and beverage. Thursday and Friday tickets are sold out, with limited availability remaining for Saturday and Sunday. Contact Sean Sovacool at sean@bermudachampionship.com for details.

The Bermuda Championship will feature 132 of the world’s top professional golfers competing over four days. Brendon Todd is set to defend his title, scheduled to appear along with recently announced Danny Willett, the 2016 Masters champion, and fan favourite Harold Varner III. Additional field announcements will be made, as players have until Friday, October 23 to commit.

Spectator protocols will include temperature checks, mandatory wearing of face masks upon entry and around the golf course, social distancing with six feet of separation, and the use of hand sanitiser, with units placed throughout the venue, including entrances, restrooms and concession locations. For the safety of spectators and players, autographs will not be permitted.

About Bermuda Championship

The Bermuda Championship is an annual stop on the PGA TOUR. In 2019, the tournament raised over $225,000 for local charities and made history as the first PGA TOUR event ever held in Bermuda, highlighted by five Bermudians in the field. Scheduled for October 26 to November 1 at Port Royal Golf Course in Southampton, the 2020 Bermuda Championship will feature a field of 132 players, 72 holes of stroke play and a purse of US$4 million. This official FedEx Cup event will showcase Bermuda to the world
